

Man and Sin

When God created Adam and Eve he said, "It is very good." Why did God create us and what is our purpose on this earth?

Our concept of who we are leads us to a proper understanding of how we are to live out our lives while we are here on this earth.

Secondly we will answer the question, "Is man basically good or basically bad?"

The world today would say that mankind is basically good. If you give them a good home, education, job, etc. They will turn into wonderful people who do good. But what does the Bible teach about human beings?
